Full-time student certification

To be eligible for coverage, unmarried children over the age of 18 must be enrolled full-time in college (minimum of 12 units) or trade school or on an approved medical leave of absence from a college or trade school. If on a medical leave of absence, please attach the signed physician's certification for the medical leave indicating the beginning and ending dates of your dependent's medical leave. Please also complete this form including the employee's signature.
